Come To Order[®] Named One of Constant Contact's 2011 All Stars

RICHMOND, VA — Mar. 16, 2012 –Come To Order, a local company providing professional organizing services, received the 2011 All Star Award from Constant Contact[®], Inc., the trusted marketing advisor to more than half a million small organizations worldwide. Each year, a select group of Constant Contact customers are honored with the All Star Award for their exemplary marketing results. Come To Order's results ranked among the top 10% of Constant Contact's customer base.

Come To Order has been providing professional organizing services for over 7 years in the metro Richmond area. Their staff specializes in residential organizing, paper management systems, time management and student organizing.

"We're happy to be recognized by Constant Contact for achieving strong marketing results. This means that we are reaching our clients and providing them with information they want and use in their goal to become more organized and productive in their lives", states Kathy Jenkins, Certified Professional Organizer[®] and President.

"There is nothing we like more than to see our customers finding success. It's the reason Constant Contact was founded, and it's a thrill to see the fantastic results that our All Stars are achieving," said Gail Goodman, CEO of Constant Contact. "This group is really leading the charge when it comes to delivering relevant, engaging content that drives real business results. We salute this year's All Stars for their success, and are honored to have played a part in their achievements."
